SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST. MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

NOV 3RD

St. Martin de Porres, the first black saint of the Americas, was born in Lima, Peru on Dec 9th, 1579. He began his life in poverty and rejection as his father abandoned him, his mother, and his younger sister. After spending just two years in primary school, Martin was placed with a barber/surgeon where he would learn to cut hair and the medical arts.

St. Martin de Porres was very eager to serve and began to volunteer with the Dominicans at age 15 and helped care for the sick in the monastery infirmary and also worked in the kitchen and doing laundry. He had great compassion for all people, regardless of their race or status, and his loving care extended to animals, including stray cats and dogs, beasts of the field, and even kitchen vermin.

St. Martin de Porres was known for his devotion to the Eucharist and constant prayer. It is said that he had many extraordinary abilities, including aerial flights, bilocation, instant cures, miraculous knowledge, and spiritual knowledge. He was great friends with both St. Juan Macías, a fellow Dominican lay brother, and St. Rose of Lima, a lay Dominican. He died on Nov. 3, 1639, at age 60.

Patron Saint of African Americans, barbers, innkeepers, the poor, Peru, public health workers, and social justice.

Saying of the Saint

“Charity is the cement that holds the world together.” - St. Martin de Porres.

“Compassion, my dear brother, is the bond that unites all creatures of the universe.” - St. Martin de Porres.

Spiritual

"Faith gives us the promise of peace and makes known the demands of love." Jesus said, "The greatest among you will be the one who serves the rest." Selfishness blurs the vision of faith causing us to judge the poor, criticize those of other races, ignore the homeless, etc. The way to live this faith is to build a human community of love and justice. Giving of our time, and our many gifts is one way to expand our faith.

Pantry

At this time our pantry could use the following: cookies, canned fruit, strawberry jam. Please drop pantry items in our large white wooden box located in the church entrance (leading to the washrooms). Thank you!

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

“Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.” (Joshua 1:9)

Our theme for Catholic Education Sunday this year is: “Courage to Lead”. Parents, educators, administrators, trustees, and clergy are all invited to engage their responsibility of leadership to strengthen and promote Catholic education, through which we lead the children entrusted to our care to know, love, and follow Jesus Christ.

Publicly funded Catholic education in Alberta is a unique and cherished historical gift, for which we are grateful. It is an invaluable offering to both the Catholic community and wider society, carrying growing responsibility in an increasingly secular world. In the face of many societal changes and challenges, we share the responsibility of ensuring that our faith-based education remains steadfast in its fidelity to the teachings of the Church. We are all called to lead with courage, secure in God’s love.

Leadership within Catholic Education involves guidance with a sense of purpose, driven by the mission to nurture in our young people a joyful reliance upon the Holy Spirit, unwavering trust in the words of the Lord Jesus, and abiding confidence in the providence of our Heavenly Father. Beyond academic excellence, dedicated educators will permeate all aspects of school life with the Catholic faith. Parents and clergy have their role to play by strengthening the relationship of our schools with both home and parish. In addition, all Catholics exercise their responsibility by offering the support of their prayers and advocating strongly for our schools. Every effort counts in the promotion of our Catholic education system.

For our part, we Bishops pledge our leadership and support in the service of our schools. We look forward to our continuing engagement with parents, trustees, administrators, teachers, and clergy to ensure that our schools are places of authentic Catholic community, in which our beloved students come to know the joy of friendship with Jesus Christ, our Saviour.

May God bless our Catholic schools.

Memorial Liturgy for those grieving the loss of child from a miscarriage or stillbirth

It is difficult to put pain adequately into words, but rituals speak beyond words alone because they consist of symbolic actions and language. They sanctify our experiences and entrust them to God's loving care and compassion. We also invite family members and friends to come and support those who are grieving this profound loss in their midst.
