SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST. JOHN DAMASCENE, PRIEST, AND DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

4th DEC

St. John Damascene, also known as St. John of Damascus, was born in Damascus, Syria, in 675, to Christian parents. John's father was held in high esteem by the local rulers and was entrusted with important administrative responsibility. When John's father died, John was given an important role in the city's administration but later he resigned his position, sold his possessions, and retreated to the desert monastery of Mar Saba, near Jerusalem.

St. John Damascene spent his first two decades growing in spiritual perfection in the monastery. Under the guidance of his spiritual director, he embraced monastic disciplines, such as renouncing his own will, avoiding worldly attachments, and dedicating all actions to God. He studied, prayed, did penance, and continuously entrusted himself to His merciful God. He advanced so greatly in the spiritual life, humility, and learning, that his superiors deemed him worthy of priestly ordination, which was uncommon among the monks.

After thirty-five years as a monk, St. John Damascene was ordained to the priesthood in 735 at the age of 60. The focus of his final fourteen years was contemplative prayer. He also composed several Marian hymns, preached homilies on the Blessed Virgin Mary, and wrote an Office of the Dead.

St. John Damascene was declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Leo XIII in 1890. He is the Patron Saint of pharmacists, icon painters, and theology students.

Sayings of the Saint

“The Eucharist is a fire which inflames us”. St. John of Damascus.

“If a pagan asks you to show him your faith, take him into church and place him before the icons”. St. John of Damascus.

*Fr. Paul Raj, SAC has been the pastor at St. Cecilia's since November 2014 and is part of the Pallottine Fathers Community (Society of the Catholic Apostolate) who's patron is St. Vincent Pallotti. ### Spiritual

Sometimes we are ready - as individuals, as a family, as a couple - to seek some opportunities to experience Advent with a different spirit. We are ready to have our hearts opened and engaged by doing some service for others. We know from past experience, or we've heard from others, that this is a very rewarding and grace-filled way to enter into Advent. It helps us to prepare for Christmas because we focus on how grateful we are and we enter into the spirit of sharing by allowing us to imitate our Savior who simply gave of his very self for us. And, it helps us get closer to the experience of the poor and needy of our world. We think about their needs and we do something - even if it is a small thing - to reach out.

Pantry

At this time our pantry could use the following: white sugar (2kg), jello-powder, pancake mix (just add water), pancake syrup.

Please drop pantry items in our large white wooden box located in the church entrance (leading to the washrooms). Thank you!

Advent Season

Advent has a twofold nature: It prepares us for Christmas, when we recall Christ's first coming among us, and it is also a time when we look forward to his second coming at the end of the ages. Advent is a season of joyful expectation. During Advent, each Sunday's Gospel reading has a specific focus. The Old Testament readings, especially those taken from Isaiah, are prophecies about the Messiah and messianic times. The selections from the writings of the Apostles present exhortations and instructions on different themes of this season.
