SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST. JOHN OF DAMASCUS

MARCH 27TH

St. John Damascus was born in Damascus to Christian parents. All the information we have on St. John of Damascus are through the records of John, Patriarch of Jerusalem. He received a classical and theological education and followed his father in a government position under the Arabs. He became increasingly sensitive to the non-Christian environment and feared its influence. In his mid- to late-twenties, he resigned his position, sold his possessions, and retreated to the desert monastery of Mar Saba, near Jerusalem, St. John Damascus spent his first twenty years growing in spiritual perfection in the monastery as a monk. He embraced monastic disciplines, studied, prayed, did penance, and entrusted himself to His merciful God. As he advanced so greatly in the spiritual life, humility, and learning, that his superiors thought that he is worthy of priestly ordination, which was uncommon among the monks. They also believed that he could offer great service to the Church as a priest through ministry and writing. St. John Damascus was ordained and instructed by his superiors to address important theological issues within the Caliphate and Byzantine Empire.

St. John Damascus is the Patron Saint of pharmacists, icon painters, and theology students. He was Declared a Doctor of the Church by Pope Leo XIII in 1890.

Sayings of the Saint

“Devotion to you, O Blessed Virgin, is a means of salvation which God gives to those whom he wishes to save”. - St. John of Damascus.

“If a pagan asks you to show him your faith, take him into church and place him before the icons”. - St. John of Damascus.

Fr. Paul Raj, SAC has been the pastor at St. Cecilia's since November 2014 and is part of the Pallottine Fathers Community (Society of the Catholic Apostolate) whose patron is St. Vincent Pallotti. St. Cecilia's is his first parish in Canada. He comes from the Tamil province of India. He was also in the Philippines for 3 years serving and studying.

Lent is an important time for us to ask ourselves if there are any parts of our hearts, any of our patterns, that oppose Jesus and his desire to give us life. "From whom am I withholding affection, care, reconciliation? Where can I live more honestly, with more integrity? How might I proactively change my own personal patterns of escape with patterns of care for others?" It is a time of grace to feel grateful to the Lord for showing us obstacles to the life he is offering us.

Bishops raise serious concerns about threats to charitable status designation

On Monday, 10 March 2025, the members of the Permanent Council of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) expressed their grave concern regarding two recommendations made by the House of Commons Standing Committee on Finance within Report 21: Pre-Budget Consultations in Advance of the 2025 Budget. These recommendations (#429 and #430), if adopted, would be profoundly detrimental to Canada's charitable sector, because they would:

- Revoke the charitable status of "anti-abortion organizations" (#429);
- Amend the Income Tax Act such that "the advancement of religion" would no longer qualify as a legitimate purpose for granting charitable status. (#430)

After consulting widely, including with experts in charity law, the members of the Permanent Council sent a letter to the Hon. Dominic LeBlanc, Minister of Finance, defending the value and role of faith-based charities for Canadian society, as well as the unfairness of targeting pro-life organizations. They urged the government to abandon the two recommendations and to conduct comprehensive consultations within the charitable sector before embarking on any legislative changes that could threaten the viability of charitable organizations and adversely affect the millions of Canadians who depend on them for essential services and support.

Letters were sent to:

St. Cecilia's CWL will be having continuous ticket sales after all masses for a 50/50 draw, starting this weekend. They are raising funds for a new dishwasher in the parish kitchen. The first draw will be on Mother's Day after the 11:00 AM mass. We kindly ask for your support. Any donations are welcome and if given to the church, marked CWL, you will get a tax receipt.
